Test Case 1.0

User should be able to create new account when supply all required data

Requirements:

- Browser: Chrome 96
- User should have valid email address like test123@test.com. Make sure your email address wasn't already used in automation practice page. In other case use other email address.

Steps:

Step instruction	Expected result
User go to http://automationpractice.com/index.php	Automation Practice main page should be displayed
User click on "Sign in" button in Navbar	System should display Authentication page
User fill up Email address field by valid email in "Create an Account" form	System should redirect
User should fill up form with following data: first name field: Katarzyna last name field: Kluszczynska password: 12345 city: Krakow state: Alabama post code:00000 country: United States mobile phone: 000-0000 address alias: My personal addess Click Register button.	System should create account and redirect user to My account page. First and last name should be displayed in Navbar.